Guidelines for Formatting the Text:
Font: Times New Roman, 12-point font size (abstracts and keywords are 11-point)
Style: normal
Line spacing: 1,5
Align the text to the left; use a hard line break (Enter) only at the end of a paragraph.
Do not hyphenate words.
Make the main title and subsection titles bold. Do not underline text; use italics when citing the titles of publications and other primary text sources. When indicating ranges, intervals, etc., use a hyphen (2000–2010); pp. 34–56, not a dash (-).

Notes:

Include footnotes on the page – font: Times New Roman, 10-point.
This format is also used for citing references with complete bibliographic information in the running notes system in accordance with the STN ISO 690:2012 standard.
